

Faculty of Science Orientation programme

Thursday 23rd and Friday 24th February 2012

Please assemble by 9.20am in one of the three General Library basement lecture theatres: B10, B15 or B28. Campus map available here. The General Library is Building 109.

Time	Activity
9.30	Welcome and Powhiri by the Dean of Science and the Faculty Kaiārahi
10.00	The lecture Short outline of how students learn and manage information, presented in the style of a lecture. This will be an example of how a lecture is presented, how to make sense of the information given to you in a lecture and how to use it when preparing for assessments.
11.00	Morning tea/bathroom break
11.15	Time management module How to have a good life and still succeed academically – get all the tricks!
12.15	Lunch break and free time
1.00	Feedback from 'The lecture' and PRIZE DRAW
1.30	Students succeeding A short film that talks to current science students about their experiences
1.50	Questions
2.00	Campus Tour Current students will guide groups according to major around the campus to areas of interest
3.00	Meet your majoring department Meet academic and professional staff from one or more of your majoring departments and enjoy some free food and drinks with other new students. Great networking opportunity.